The Literary Services department has received your nomination for Plays in Process. The selection committee's decision should be made by the end of January, 1985. You will be notified of the result.

Thank you for participating in this project. Enclosed is another nomination form for future use. Remember that musicals and plays for young audiences, as well as full-length and one-act plays, adaptations and translations, are eligible. If you have questions about PIP or the other programs of the department, please let us know.
