YOUR GUIDE TO THE GREEKS

... "Brilliant, deluded, irrepressible quarrels about what it means to be only human."

—NEWSWEEK

EXTRAORDINARY STORIES OF MURDER, SIN, RETRIBUTION AND LOVE

THE GREEKS, a spectacular chronicle of the fall of Troy and its aftermath starts performances April 9th! Adapted principally from the works of Euripides, with additional material from Sophocles, Aeschylus and Homer, THE GREEKS is a unique distillation of the legends and myths of Greece. It brings to life the gods and heroes of ancient times, rendering their heroic deeds and passions into a lucid story comprehensible to modern audiences.

The nine-play epic cycle will be performed in three parts. Each performance will stand alone as a theatrical evening; the cumulative effect will be an exhilarating experience. The epic story of Troy and the fall of the House of Atreus will unfold chronologically, and the same actor will portray the same character throughout the cycle.

Part I — THE WAR:

Iphigenia in Aulis	Euripides
Achilles	Homer (from "The Iliad")
