You are one of our finest dancer/choreographers and I'd like to ask a valuable favor. We're having a "Doodle" Auction and we need your help! (We've already received doodles from Jerome Robbins, Rudolph Nureyev, and Gene Kelly, as well as Lee Iacocca, Alistair Cooke, General William Westmoreland, President George Bush, Michael Dukakis, Lillian Gish, Tom Brokaw, Jeanna Yeager, Morley Safer, John Cleese, Lucille Ball, and Johnny Carson.)

The Back Alley is a small nonprofit theatre that has become known for doing consistently first-rate productions of material new to Los Angeles and gives talented actors and directors the opportunity to be challenged and stretched.

Most of our funds come from ticket sales, but contributed income still is a necessity for us to operate. To help us raise these funds, every year we hold a Celebrity Doodle Auction which has turned out to be a festive and fun way to earn money. (Last year it earned the theatre $35,000!!)

Would you do us the honor of doodling something for us and sending it out in the near future? As you can see by the enclosed material, anything that strikes your fancy would be fine. It can be on any kind of paper (including stationery), in any medium (color is always welcome), just so it is signed by you and dated.

We would be deeply grateful. Thank you for your consideration.

With all best wishes,

Allan Miller
