Dear Laura,

Had hoped last time I was in Los Angeles that I might see you for more than a passing moment, but I gather according to Will that schedules would not permit, so I hope next time, which looks like the end of the month we can arrange it.

Meantime am enclosing the bill for my airfare for one trip as agreed. Sorry to be so late and sloppy about it, but I've been bouncing around like a yoyo away from my desk for literally five months now...and at best as you know, am not so good about paper work.

Hope all goes well with you both, and that the Equity problem is getting resolved. The show looked swell/last time I saw it. (the night I saw you)

Thanks for all.

Sincerely,

Pat
