Fourth Annual Doodle Auction

As a non-profit theatre, the Back Alley chooses work that is challenging, innovative and provocative. Since its inception in 1979, the theatre has consistently produced plays that are either world premieres or new to Los Angeles.

Although people attend the Back Alley from all over Los Angeles county, the theatre has a particularly strong rapport with the three million residents of the San Fernando Valley, and is proud to bring professional theatre to the community that has supported it for nearly a decade.

Despite the escalating costs associated with producing quality live theatre, the Back Alley is committed to keeping tickets affordable while paying artists equitable salaries. Your support enables the Back Alley to nurture emerging talents and explore new avenues in theatre.
