

Yes, we're moving!

The Back Alley is entering a new phase. For some time we've been looking for a new space to house the theatre and administrative office. Our old space on Burbank Blvd. has served us well during the past ten years, but the Back Alley needs a larger theatre facility to provide the first-class professional theatre the Valley deserves. We all know what looking for the right home at the right price in the L.A. real estate market is like. We haven't found the right site yet; as an interim measure we're relocating our administrative offices for the Back Alley Theatre to 14532 Friar Street, Suite A, Van Nuys, 91411 - just west of Van Nuys Blvd., and one block south of Victory Blvd.

Until we have a new theatre site, we'll be one of L.A.'s nomad theatres, presenting shows in other sites - as you can see we'll be in residence at the West End Playhouse and the Odyssey in the coming months.

Don't worry. We'll be sending you notices of the who, what, when, and where of all our productions. In the meantime, if you haven't seen our current critically-acclaimed production, THE DEAL, running through October 29th, we hope you will.

Critical Acclaim for MAX & ZOEY

The Los Angeles Times, Parent Magazine, everyone loves MAX & ZOEY. The Daily News gives MAX & ZOEY four stars: "...a wonderful way for parents to introduce their 3-to-8 year old children to theatre. It also may simulate some worthwhile parent-child conversations.

"This 50-minute musical, which was commissioned by the Back Alley, consists of adaptations of two of Dion Holt's short stories by Will Holt. The first deals with chicken pox; the second, with the strange noises kids hear between the time Mom turns off the bedroom light and the time they finally fall asleep. In both cases, the Holts demystify the strange and scary."

Valley Family Magazine calls MAX & ZOEY "...a delightful musical. The theatre was filled with kids...the play's catchy tunes and clever lyrics, fine acting, and audience participation unflinchingly held their attention...It's definitely fun-filled family theatre."
